Dear Mr. Allensworth:

I wrote to Philip D. Heagney,
Presiding Judge.

Thank you for your letter dated November 6, 2014. I received and read your letter on November 10, 2014.

Robert M Allensworth

Your letter appears to concern the issue of voting rights and, in particular, a method of backup voting.

Please know that the St. Louis City Circuit Court has no authority to pass any laws, including laws about voting rights. When the St. Louis City Circuit Court addresses voting rights issues, it is in the context of a specific lawsuit filed by a person or by people who believe that an injury has occurred.

Yours truly,

Philip D. Heagney

☐ The clerk's office is unable to provide the requested forms.

☐ You have more than one case pending in the Northern District of Texas, and your document does not provide a case number. Write the correct case number on your document and return it for filing. The document can only be filed in one case. If you want to file it in more than one case, you must provide separate copies for each case.

I suggest a limited voting backus ballot for Irving ISF

☐ Your case was filed in or transferred to another judicial district. We are returning your document(s) so you may file them in that district. The correct court address is provided in the "Other" section at the bottom of this letter.

where there may be problems with rogue machine winners.

☐ Your case was filed in or transferred to another division in the Northern District of Texas. As a courtesy we have forwarded the original document(s) to that division. You must mail all future documents to the proper division. The correct division address is provided in the "Other" section at the bottom of this letter.
